Carole Joy Seid is a veteran homeschool mother who holds a B.A. in fine arts, a master's degree in education and is a CPLC certified life coach. She has taught in preschool, elementary, and junior high classrooms in both public and Christian schools. Carole believes that by reading great books, your children will benefit not only academically, but in terms of character development, problem solving skills, spiritual maturity, social intelligence and relationships. At the core of her philosophy is the secret to educational success: great books, great books and more great books. The comprehensive all day seminar format provides opportunity for in-depth coverage of many topics, as well as allowing you to interject your own questions and concerns. The day will end with a Q&A panel of seasoned homeschool families
